

32 Digital Tools + Resources Every Art Teacher Can Use

Art Education Resources

Art Education 2.0 (global community of 13,000+ art educators)

Artsonia.com (largest children's art museum on the web)

theartofed.com (professional development for art teachers)

thesmArtTeacher.com (art teacher sharing via a lesson plan exchange and discussions)

Google Art Project (access to high quality images of art works from world class museums)

ArtBabble.org (videos about art, supplied by renowned museums and organizations)

Artsy.net (one of the largest collections of contemporary art online)

Blogging Tools

Weebly.com (create a website or blog, 'surprisingly easy')

Tumblr.com (easy to use micro-blogging platform)

Classroom Tools

Edmodo.com (Facebook for schools)

Padlet.com (virtual wall for posting prompts and responses)

Socrative.com (student response system for games, quizzes, and polls)

Google Apps for Education (suite of communication and collaboration tools)

Cloud Computing Tools

Evernote.com (notetaking, archiving resources and more)

Dropbox.com (store and access files anywhere)

Communication Tools

Twitter.com (micro-blogging tool; basics: 140 characters, # , @ , follow , RT, FAV)

Skype.com (free internet calls)

Curation + Bookmarking tools

Pinterest.com (collect, organize and share online resources on virtual pin boards)

Scoop.it (collect web links and present them in a magazine format.)

Delicious.com (tag, save, manage and share web page links)

Flipboard.com (collect stories, photos, tweets, etc., and share in a magazine format)

Livebinders.com (store web content in virtual 3-ring binders)

Presentation Tools

Haikudeck.com (a simple way to create beautiful presentations)

Prezi.com (PowerPoint on steroids)

SlideShare.net (host and share your PowerPoints)

Issuu.com (publish your materials in a digital magazine format)

Miscellaneous Tools

Tagboard.com (search social media by hashtags, e.g., #naea14, #arted, #ufglobal)

Bitly.com (URL shortener and link tracking)

Flickr.com/creativecommons (millions of images freely available for reuse)

Doodle.com (online scheduling tool)

Social Networking Tools

Google+ (social networking); Google Hangouts (group chats)

Facebook.com (art teacher group)